Tur Programı

Gün 1 — First Day

Dear guests, we start our tour by picking up our guests who request transportation in the morning. We will meet our guests coming from Çeşme at 08:00 at Çeşme Ulusoy Port and complete our check-in procedures. Then we will depart for Chios Island by fast catamaran at 09:20. Our journey will last only 20 minutes. Upon arrival at the island, after completing our customs procedures and loading our luggage onto our vehicle, we will begin our city tour on foot and visit the Aploterya market. We will visit important points such as the Ottoman Cemetery, Turkish Neighborhood, Chios Castle, the Mecidiye Mosque built by Sultan Ahmed, and Vunaki Square. After the city tour, we will transfer to the hotel at the time indicated by our guide.

Gün 2 — South Island

After having breakfast at our hotel, we will start our South Island tour with our professional guides. During this tour, you will have the opportunity to learn about the island's culture, history, and traditions, as well as purchase famous products. We will begin our tour by passing through the Kambos region, known for its citrus orchards and shipowners' mansions. Our first stop will be Armolia; here, guests who wish can buy souvenirs in the village known for its handmade ceramics. Next, we will move to the Mastichoria region, where the mastic trees are located. Here, we will receive detailed information about the care and harvesting of mastic trees.

Gün 3 — North Island

After breakfast at our hotel, we will complete our check-out procedures and meet in the lobby at the time indicated by our guide to depart for the North Island tour by bus. First, we will take a photo break at the windmills. Then, we will visit Daskolapetra, which has an important place in mythology, and learn about Homer's Teacher Stone. Agia Isidoros is one of the most photographed places on the island, built as a chapel overlooking the Aegean Sea in the village of Sikiada. It was built on top of one of the first basilicas destroyed in the earthquake of 1881. Inside the church, there is an underground chamber that houses the graves of Agios Isidoros and Agia Meropi, who passed away on the island. Our next stop will be the famous fishing village of Lagada.
