Tur Programı

Gün 1 — Day 1 — Istanbul - Belgrade

We meet at the International Departures terminal of Istanbul airport, 4 hours before our flight time. We depart for Belgrade at 07:50 with Turkish Airlines flight TK1081. After a comfortable flight, we arrive at 08:35 and complete our entry procedures before heading to the capital of Serbia, Belgrade, with our private bus. Our Belgrade city tour includes important sites such as the Old Palace adorned with magnificent carved ceilings from the Ottoman period, the Millennium Monument, the Belgrade Fortress where Fatih Sultan Mehmed was wounded but the conquest was granted to Kanuni Sultan Süleyman, Kalemegdan Square, Tašmajdan, the Military Museum, the tomb of Şehit Ali Pasha, and the Bayraklı Mosque. After the tour, guests who wish can join the Zemun & Avala Tower & Tito's Tomb Tour & Tesla Museum Tour. Overnight at our hotel in Belgrade.

Optional Tour: Zemun & Avala Tower & Tito's Tomb Tour & Tesla Museum: 80 Euro

In this optional tour, we first go to Zemun. In Zemun, we will see places such as villas from the Austro-Hungarian period, the marketplace, the street of taverns, the old theater, and Zemun Park. Then we will visit the Avala Tower designed by architects Ugljesa Bogunovic and Slobodan Janjic. After visiting the tower, which was bombed by NATO in 1999 and reopened in 2010, we will visit the mausoleum of Marshal Tito, the Croatian founder of the 2nd Yugoslavia. After visiting Tito's tomb, who was elected President of Yugoslavia on January 13, 1953, and was made president for life in 1974, we will see the Tesla Museum. Nikola Tesla is an inventor who has made many inventions that could fundamentally change the structure of science and technology in the world. He is particularly known for his invention of wireless electricity transmission. We are sure you will be fascinated by this museum.

Gün 2 — Day 2 — Belgrade

After breakfast, you can spend the day at leisure or join the Novi Sad & Sremski Karlovci tour if you wish. We return to Belgrade at the end of the tour. Overnight at our hotel in Belgrade.

Optional Tour: Novi Sad & Sremski Karlovci Tour: 65 Euro

In this tour, we head to Novi Sad with our private vehicle in the morning. Our first stop is Sremski Karlovci. In this beautiful town, we will visit the place where the Karlovci peace treaty was signed in 1699 between the Ottoman Empire and Austria-Hungary, Venice, and Poland. Here we will see the 4-gate place where the treaty was signed, the square, the four lion fountains, the historical high school, as well as Orthodox and Catholic churches. After a coffee break, we will see the Belgrade Gate, the clock tower, the upper town, the long barracks, and the Leopold Gate at Petrovaradin Fortress. Then we will reach Novi Sad. Vojvodina is a multi-ethnic region in northern Serbia, and Novi Sad is the capital of this region. During our walking tour here, we will see important places such as Freedom Square, the People's Theater, the Danube Street and its waterfront, the Svetozar Miletić Statue, the Catholic Cathedral, the Orthodox St. George Cathedral, St. Nicholas Church, and the Synagogue panoramically.

Gün 3 — Day 3 — Belgrade - Sarajevo

After breakfast, we head towards Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Upon arrival in Sarajevo, we start our city tour. This city, which has been the cultural center of the Balkans for centuries, is historically known as the place where World War I broke out when Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria-Hungary was assassinated by Serbs in 1914. In the 1992 war, it suffered significant damage due to the destructive conflicts between Serbs, Croats, and Bosniaks, but Sarajevo has managed to largely preserve its beauty. During our panoramic city tour, we will see the famous Baščaršija, the historical Ottoman inn Morica Han, the Catholic Cathedral reflecting the city's religious diversity, the Synagogue, the Gazi Husrev Bey and Ferhadija Mosques, the Latin Bridge where the assassination of Franz Ferdinand took place in 1914, the Old Library, and the Western-style buildings constructed during the 40 years of Austro-Hungarian rule. After the tour, we will transfer to our hotel. Dinner and overnight at our hotel. Guests who wish can join the optional Vrelo Bosne (the source of the Bosna River) – War Tunnel tour.

Optional Tour: Vrelo Bosne (the source of the Bosna River) – War Tunnel Tour: 40 Euro

Guests who wish can join the Vrelo Bosne - War Tunnel tour organized by our guide. First, we visit Vrelo Bosne, the water source of Sarajevo. This natural park located at the foot of Mount Igman is filled with streams, waterfalls, and ponds. Here you can see various birds as well as one of the famous first screen savers of Microsoft Windows. During our tour, we will visit the war tunnel and museum that connected the city to life during the siege. Guests who wish can pass through the visitable part of the tunnel. After the tour, we return to our hotel.

Gün 4 — Day 4 — Sarajevo

After breakfast, you have a full day at leisure. We recommend trying Bosnian pie, ćevapi, tufahija dessert, and Turkish coffee. Guests who wish can join the optional Mostar-Počitelj tour with lunch included. Overnight at our hotel.

Optional Tour: Mostar-Počitelj Tour with Lunch: 70 Euro

Guests who wish can join the full-day Mostar-Počitelj optional tour organized by our guides. In this tour, we will depart from our hotel to Mostar with our private bus. Upon arrival in Mostar, our panoramic city tour will feature the Mostar Bridge, the symbol of the city. This bridge, built over the Neretva River in 1566 by Architect Hayrettin, one of the students of Mimar Sinan, is under UNESCO protection and is one of the finest examples of Ottoman architecture. The bridge, which was destroyed by Croatian artillery fire in 1993, was rebuilt by Turkish craftsmen with the support of the Republic of Turkey and the World Bank and reopened in 2004. We will walk through the old town of Mostar, passing through narrow cobblestone streets to see the Koski Mehmet Pasha Mosque. This mosque is one of the best places to take beautiful photos of the bridge. After our lunch, we will have free time for shopping and exploration until the gathering time announced by our guide. At the specified time, we will gather and head to our second stop, Počitelj. The Ottoman village of Počitelj, which is on the UNESCO World Heritage List, joined the Ottoman Empire in 1471. After a tea and coffee break here, we return to Sarajevo. Upon arrival, we will transfer to our hotel. Overnight at our hotel in Sarajevo.

Gün 5 — Day 5 — Sarajevo- Istanbul

After breakfast, you have a full day at leisure. Guests who wish can join the optional Travnik tour with lunch included. Transfer to the airport will be arranged at the time determined by our guide. After boarding procedures, we fly to Istanbul at 20:40 with Turkish Airlines flight TK1026. Our tour ends with our arrival at Istanbul Airport at 23:35. We bid you farewell, hoping to see you on your next trip.

Optional Tour: Travnik Tour with Lunch: 70 Euro

After breakfast, we complete our check-out procedures and depart for the optional Travnik tour with lunch for interested guests. On our way to Travnik, known as the administrative center of the Bosnia province during the Ottoman period and referred to as the “City of Viziers,” we pass through the village of Ahmići, which bears the traces of the war period. Upon arrival in Travnik, we feel the historical atmosphere of the city by seeing the Elçi İbrahim Pasha Madrasah from the outside. We take a short walk in the Plava Voda area, known for its spring waters and natural beauty, and visit the Şarene (Süleymaniye) Mosque, famous for its colorful decorations, which is one of the symbols of the city. Then, we get to know Travnik’s cultural heritage closely by seeing the house of Nobel Prize-winning author Ivo Andrić, which is now used as a museum, from the outside. After our tour, we will have our lunch included in the tour fee at a local restaurant. After lunch, we will have a short free time until the departure time determined by our guide, and then we will return to Sarajevo.
