Tur Programı

Gün 1 — Day 1 — | Istanbul – London

We begin our journey with a meeting at 05:00 at Istanbul Airport International Terminal. After completing our luggage, ticket, and passport procedures, we depart for London Heathrow Airport on Turkish Airlines flight TK1989 at 09:40. Upon arrival in London at 11:40 local time, we start our panoramic city tour with our waiting vehicle. The capital of England, London, welcomes us with its rich history, royal heritage, magnificent structures, and unique city atmosphere. During our panoramic city tour, we will see Hyde Park, Buckingham Palace, Big Ben Clock Tower, Trafalgar Square, Admiral Nelson Monument, Parliament Building, Westminster Bridge, Westminster Abbey, Oxford and Regent Shopping Streets, and the River Thames. After the panoramic tour in London, where the historical texture of the city intertwines with modern life, we transfer to our hotel. Free time to settle in and relax. Overnight at our hotel in London.

Gün 2 — Day 2 — | London

After our breakfast, we continue our exploration of London. We start our tour at Westminster Abbey, one of the most important symbols of England's history, located in the heart of London. This magnificent historical structure, which has hosted the coronation ceremonies of English kings since 1066, takes us back in time with its centuries-old story. After viewing Westminster Abbey from the outside, we see the Parliament Building located right next to it. Big Ben, officially known as the Elizabeth Tower, is one of London's world-famous symbols and part of the Parliament building. Our next stop is Buckingham Palace, the official residence of the British Royal Family in London. After this striking building, which is one of the most notable structures in the city due to its magnificent facade and importance in royal history, we reach Trafalgar Square with a short walk. The Nelson Column, rising in the center of the square, is one of the symbols of England's victory in the Napoleonic Wars. After Trafalgar Square, we continue our walk along the River Thames. The London Eye, located on the riverbank, is a giant Ferris wheel that offers a panoramic view of London at a height of 135 meters. After seeing one of the most impressive points of the London skyline, we head to Chinatown, one of the city's vibrant areas. With its traditional Chinese-style gates, red lanterns, and colorful decorations, Chinatown is one of London's liveliest and most cosmopolitan areas. We then move to Piccadilly Circus, located very close to Chinatown. In the center of the square, famous for its giant electronic billboards, there is a monument known as the Eros Statue, officially named the Shaftesbury Memorial Fountain. Continuing our tour, we head to Oxford Street, London's most famous shopping street. This bustling street, which is practically the heart of the city, is lined with numerous shops, restaurants, and cafes. Soho, located very close to Oxford Street, is one of London's most cosmopolitan and energetic areas, where different cultures come together. With its narrow streets, historic buildings, and unique atmosphere, Soho has been one of the city's most vibrant areas from the past to the present, especially known for its lively nightlife today. We continue our tour with Hyde Park, the green oasis in the center of London. Covering approximately 350 hectares, Hyde Park is one of the largest and most famous parks in the city, serving as a peaceful escape for both Londoners and visitors. After our visit to Hyde Park, we give free time. Guests who wish can use this time for shopping or visiting the British Museum, one of London's world-famous museums. Although entry to the British Museum is free, it is recommended to make a reservation in advance on the website due to potential crowding. Additionally, entry with backpacks is not allowed. Later in the day, we have the opportunity to see London's historical and iconic structures from a different perspective by taking a boat tour on the River Thames. After meeting at the location and time specified by our guide, we return to our hotel. Overnight at our hotel in London.

Gün 3 — Day 3 — | London – Oxford – Stonehenge – Bath – Birmingham

After our breakfast, we set off to explore England's most historically and culturally impressive cities. Our first stop is Oxford. One of England's oldest and most prestigious university cities, Oxford has a unique character with its historical buildings, enchanting architecture, and intellectual atmosphere. Located about 90 kilometers west of London, the city center of Oxford offers visitors a classic English city atmosphere with its old stone buildings, narrow streets, historic squares, shops, cafes, and restaurants. We explore important streets such as High Street, Cornmarket Street, and Broad Street, discovering the harmony between modern life and traditional English architecture. After visiting the gardens of Oxford University, we head towards Stonehenge, one of history's most mysterious structures. Believed to have been built about 5,000 years ago, Stonehenge is an extraordinary monument that has survived from the Neolithic and Bronze Ages to the present day. The mystery of how the massive stones were transported and for what purpose they were placed has been a subject of curiosity for centuries; Stonehenge holds great importance in terms of history, archaeology, astronomy, and culture. After our visit to Stonehenge, we move to the elegant city of Bath in southwest England. Famous for its Roman-era baths, magnificent Georgian architecture, and picturesque atmosphere, Bath also holds a significant place in the life and works of the famous writer Jane Austen. Bath Abbey, located in the city center, stands out with its impressive Gothic architecture. The Pulteney Bridge, located over the River Avon, is one of the rare bridges with shops on it and is one of the city's most characteristic structures. The Royal Crescent, one of Bath's iconic structures, is a magnificent crescent-shaped architecture consisting of 30 Georgian-style houses, representing one of the finest examples of 18th-century English architecture. After our visit to Bath, we head to Birmingham. Upon arrival, we check into our hotel and have free time to relax. Overnight at our hotel in Birmingham.

Gün 4 — Day 4 — | Birmingham – Manchester – Liverpool

After our breakfast, we head to Manchester, one of England's cities with significant importance in industry, culture, and music. In Manchester, which offers a blend of historical and modern life, we will see Manchester Cathedral, Chetham's Library, Manchester Town Hall, and Albert Square. After our tour of Manchester, known for its historic Gothic architecture, impressive squares, and cultural atmosphere, we turn our route towards Liverpool, the legendary city of music and football. Liverpool is one of England's most special cities, not only for its history but also for the legends it has contributed to the music world. Especially the fact that members of The Beatles, John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr were born and raised in Liverpool has made the city one of the indispensable centers of music history. During our visit to Liverpool, we will see Liverpool Cathedral, Liverpool Port (Albert Dock), St. George's Hall, and The Beatles Story. After our tour, we head to our hotel. After check-in, we have free time to relax. Overnight at our hotel in Liverpool.

Gün 5 — Day 5 — | Liverpool – York – Durham – Newcastle Upon Tyne

After our breakfast, we complete our check-out procedures and head to York. York, which carries traces of many civilizations from the Roman Empire to the Vikings, is considered one of the best-preserved medieval cities in England. Surrounded by historical walls, the city offers visitors a time travel experience with its impressive medieval architecture and atmosphere. During our city tour, we will see York Minster, one of England's largest cathedrals, from the outside. Then we will visit The Shambles, one of York's oldest and most characteristic streets, and St. Helen Square. After our visit to York, we head to Durham. Shaped around the meanders of the River Wear, Durham is one of England's most impressive cities with its peaceful atmosphere by the river and historical structures. As we progress towards the heart of the city, we enjoy a pleasant walk accompanied by historical buildings and river views. We will see Durham Cathedral, one of the city's most important historical structures. The magnificent cathedral is also known for hosting some scenes from the Harry Potter films. Particularly, some parts of the cathedral were used as Hogwarts interiors in the films Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone and Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets. After our visit to the city center of Durham, we head to Newcastle Upon Tyne. Stretching along the River Tyne, Newcastle stands out with its impressive bridges and river views. The city's symbols include Tyne Bridge and Gateshead Millennium Bridge. The Gateshead Millennium Bridge, which connects Newcastle and Gateshead, is notable for its unique design and opening-closing mechanism. While walking along the river, we enjoy the panoramic view of the city. After our tour, we head to our hotel and have free time to relax. Overnight at our hotel in Newcastle Upon Tyne.

Gün 6 — Day 6 — | Newcastle Upon Tyne – Edinburgh – Glasgow

After our breakfast, we complete our check-out procedures and head to Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. After approximately a 3-hour journey, we begin to explore Edinburgh with its historical texture and magnificent architecture. The Royal Mile, one of the city's most vibrant and showy streets, is one of the most important areas reflecting the spirit of Edinburgh with its historical buildings from the Middle Ages to the present, narrow streets, boutique shops, souvenir shops, traditional Scottish restaurants, and cafes. St Giles' Cathedral, located on the Royal Mile, is an important part of the city's cultural heritage. The building, notable for its Gothic architecture, is also known for its significant role in the history of the Scottish Reformation. Then we see Edinburgh Castle, which has become a symbol of the city. Rising on Castle Rock, an ancient volcanic hill, the castle is one of the most important symbols of Scotland's royal past and military history. After our visit to Edinburgh Castle, we meet at the time specified by our guide and head towards Glasgow. In Glasgow, one of Scotland's largest and most dynamic cities, we see George Square, located in the heart of the city center. Surrounded by historical buildings, monuments, and statues, the square is an ideal starting point to explore Glasgow's city atmosphere. After seeing Glasgow's historical buildings and important city points around the square, we give free time. After meeting at the time specified by our guide, we head to our hotel and have free time to relax. Overnight at our hotel in Glasgow.

Gün 7 — Day 7 — | Glasgow – Belfast – Dublin

After our breakfast, we complete our check-out procedures and set off early in the morning towards Belfast. After our ferry journey, we arrive in Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland. Upon arrival, we see Belfast City Hall, one of the most important symbols of Belfast, located in the city center. Designed in Renaissance Revival and Baroque style, the building is one of the city's striking structures with its magnificent architecture and white granite exterior. Then we have the opportunity to see St. Anne's Cathedral, one of Belfast's most important religious buildings. After our tour of Belfast, we head towards Dublin, the capital of Ireland. After approximately a 2.5-hour journey, we arrive in Dublin and start exploring the city. In Dublin, the historical and cultural capital of Ireland, important structures to see include Dublin Castle, St. Patrick's Cathedral dedicated to the city's patron saint, St. Patrick, and Christ Church Cathedral, notable for its impressive Gothic architecture. After our tour of Dublin, characterized by its historical streets, magnificent cathedrals, and unique city atmosphere, we give free time in the city. After meeting at the time specified by our guide, we head to our hotel and have free time to relax. Overnight at our hotel in Dublin.

Gün 8 — Day 8 — | Dublin – Istanbul

After our breakfast, we transfer to Dublin Airport at the time specified by our guide. After completing our luggage, ticket, and passport procedures, we depart for Istanbul on Turkish Airlines flight TK1976 at 10:40. Upon our arrival in Istanbul at 17:10 local time, we reach the end of our unforgettable journey. In this memorable trip that extends from the historical cities of the United Kingdom to the enchanting atmosphere of Scotland and the unique capital of Ireland, Dublin, we leave behind a journey filled with discoveries, historical textures, and beautiful memories.
