We take a short photo break at Piazza Navona, one of the most beautiful examples of Baroque architecture, accompanied by Bernini’s Four Rivers Fountain. Our next stop is the ancient Pantheon, dazzling with its architecture. Then we go to the Fontana di Trevi (Trevi Fountain), which has become a symbol of Rome, and perform the traditional wish ritual. Our walk continues to the Spanish Steps, known as one of the most romantic places in Rome, and Piazza del Popolo, known as the northern gate. In the last part of our walk, we move to the Vatican, the center of the Christian world, and see the magnificent St. Peter's Square surrounded by Bernini's columns.
