Casablanca City Tour Included!

Gün 2 — Day 2 — Casablanca – Marrakech April 23, 2027

After our breakfast, we check out of the hotel and head towards Marrakech. We reach the Koutoubia Mosque, the largest mosque in the city, by passing through the narrow streets of Marrakech, amidst Orange and Cypress trees.

This mosque, with different patterns on each side of its minaret, challenges history with its unspoiled architectural beauty from the 12th century.

Then, we explore the Marrakech Souk, resembling a Covered Bazaar.

In this market composed of narrow streets, you will have the chance to buy spices, carpets, kilims, traditional embroidered clothes from Morocco, leather bags, wallets, perfumes, and many other different products. We end the program at “Jma El Fna Square.” Jemaa means “community” in Arabic, and Fna means “courtyard, open area,” which we can say is a kind of socializing center for the local people besides tourists. You will often encounter snake charmers, fortune tellers, and henna artists in the square. During the tour, we will have the opportunity to visit famous herbalist pharmacists and buy spices along with Argan and Cactus oils, then return to the hotel. Dinner and accommodation at our hotel in Marrakech.

Marrakech Medina Tour Included!

Extra Tour: Bahia Palace and Majorelle Gardens €70 per person

In this special tour reflecting the spirit of Marrakech, we explore the two most magnificent stops in the city.

First, we visit the Bahia Palace, known as the “Palace of Beauty,” a masterpiece of 19th-century Moroccan architecture. We witness Morocco’s glorious past with its intricately decorated ceilings, massive marble courtyards, and peaceful inner gardens.

Then, we move on to the famous Majorelle Gardens, which rise like an oasis with exotic plants and its iconic cobalt blue color. This botanical paradise, a legacy of French painter Jacques Majorelle and brought to life by Yves Saint Laurent’s touches, allows us to photograph the unique harmony of art and nature.

Gün 3 — Day 3 — Marrakech April 24, 2027

After our breakfast, we participate in a World Heritage Essaouira Tour. Located on the coast of the Atlantic Ocean, this city, which reminds us of the old Bodrum at first glance, is one of the world-famous former Portuguese cities. This city, listed as a “World Heritage” by UNESCO, is a fishing port on the Atlantic coast and a coastal town where art and culture intertwine. The city’s fortress, fishing port, and Medina built based on ancient Roman cities are among the places to visit. You can explore the city among the narrow winding streets that you will never get tired of and enjoy pleasant shopping. After the tour, we return to Marrakech. Dinner and accommodation in Marrakech.

Essaouira Tour Included!
