We start the day with breakfast and after checking out of the hotel, we head towards Marrakech. Walking through the narrow streets of Marrakech, we reach the Koutoubia Mosque, the largest mosque in the city, surrounded by orange and cypress trees. This 12th-century mosque is notable for its minaret, which features different patterns on each side. Then, we stroll through the Marrakech Souk, reminiscent of a covered bazaar. You will have the opportunity to find various products such as spices, carpets, traditional Moroccan clothing, leather bags, wallets, and perfumes in these narrow streets. We conclude our program at Jemaa El Fna Square.

Day 3: Marrakech, April 24, 2027

We start the day with breakfast and then join the Essaouira Tour, a UNESCO World Heritage site. This city, located on the Atlantic Ocean coast, resembles the old Bodrum at first glance and is one of the world-famous old Portuguese cities. This place, listed as a 'World Heritage' by UNESCO, is a fishing town where art and culture intertwine. The city's fortress, fishing port, and Medina, inspired by ancient Roman cities, are among the places to visit. You can explore the city by wandering through the narrow streets and enjoy some delightful shopping. After the tour, we return to Marrakech. Dinner and accommodation will be in Marrakech.

Essaouira Tour included!
