Optional Tour: Toledo Tour – Per Person 75 €

Toledo, a true open-air museum, is the former capital of Spain and one of the most important cities on the UNESCO World Heritage List. The magnificent cathedral in the city hosts works by world-famous artists, making it one of Europe's notable art centers. Known as the city of El Greco, Toledo has managed to preserve its historical texture largely from the 16th century to the present day. Structures bearing traces of Roman, Visigoth, Arab, Gothic, and Renaissance architecture, narrow stone streets, works of El Greco, traditional pastry shops, Damascino stores, and the magnificent cathedral offer visitors an unforgettable atmosphere. One of Toledo's oldest traditions is the production of marzipan, which has survived from the Arab period to the present day. It is said that a visit to Toledo is not complete without tasting the famous marzipan of the city. After a pleasant walk in the Jewish Quarter, we return to our hotel in Madrid.
