Gün 2 — Day 2

After having our breakfast at the hotel, we depart for the famous port city of Genoa, saying goodbye to Milan. Upon arrival, we will embark on a journey to the center of this magnificent city. We will meet the splendor of Piazza de Ferrari, where modernity and history meet, and visit the architecturally stunning San Lorenzo Cathedral. After discovering the symbolic Torre Della Lanterna, one of the largest lighthouses in the Mediterranean, and the vibrant Genoa Port Area, you will have free time for personal explorations in this impressive city. After the time set by our guide, All Guests Will Enjoy Free; The Magnificent Monaco &...

Gün 3 — Day 3

After having our breakfast at the hotel, we take our seats on the bus for a journey that will continue along the French Riviera, setting off to discover the beauties of Cote d’Azur shining under the Mediterranean sun. Our first stop is the magnificent city of Antibes, where art and history intertwine. Here, we will explore the Old Port, which reflects the spirit of the city, the magnificent Notre Dame Cathedral, and the streets lined with colorful houses filled with tranquility. After absorbing the bohemian and touristic charm of Antibes, we turn our route towards the splendid Cannes. During our short city tour in this most popular holiday destination of the Mediterranean, we will see the famous Cannes Film Festival that takes place on the red carpet where stars walk...

Gün 4 — Day 4

After having our breakfast at the hotel, we set off to explore Marseille, the second-largest city in France after Paris and the heart of Southern France. During our city tour, we will visit the lively and vibrant Vieux-Port (Old Port), the main street La Canebière reflecting the city's energy, and the Le Panier area, which carries the spirit of the old town with its historical buildings. After our exploration, we will give free time at the tourist center of Marseille, Vieux-Port, allowing you to individually experience the atmosphere of this lively port. Then we will turn our route towards Aix-en-Provence, the ancient capital of Provence founded by the Romans, dating back to 123 BC. Due to the Mediterranean climate, the city is known for its...

Gün 5 — Day 5

After having our breakfast at the hotel, we set off for the Free Tour for All Guests: Narbonne & Carcassonne Tour. Our first stop, Narbonne, is a city with a unique atmosphere, serving as a bridge between the bustling Montpellier to the north and Perpignan to the south, located close to the Mediterranean coast. After a brief exploration, our journey continues to the magnificent Carcassonne, which draws us back in time like a time machine. Upon arrival, we will begin exploring the historic medieval city of Carcassonne, which is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and holds the title of the largest castle in Europe. Surrounded by 52 towers and 3 kilometers of double walls, this epic structure will offer us an unforgettable journey from the present to the past...

Gün 6 — Day 6

After having our breakfast at the hotel, we set off for Barcelona. We will conduct the Free Girona & Figueras Tour for all guests. Our tour begins in the city of Girona, established at the intersection of the Onyar, Galligants, and Güell rivers, known as the "pearl of Northern Catalonia". This historical city carries the heritage of dozens of civilizations since the Iberians, showcasing perfectly preserved stone buildings that reflect the spirit of the Middle Ages. During our walk through the cobbled narrow streets, under the shadow of its magnificent walls, we will discover the city's symbol, the Lion Statue, the enchanting Cathedral Square, and the mysterious Jewish Quarter. Our time spent among these ancient and impressive structures of Girona will be quite enjoyable...
