Tur Programı

Gün 1 — Day 1 — | İstanbul - Malta - Valletta - Three Cities - Malta

Day 1 | İstanbul - Malta - Valletta - Three Cities - Malta

After meeting at the International Terminal of İstanbul Airport and completing our luggage and passport procedures, we depart for Malta at 07:55 on Turkish Airlines flight TK1369. Upon our arrival in Malta at 08:30 local time, we begin our tour with our private vehicle waiting for us. Our first stop is Valletta, the capital of Malta and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. During our panoramic tour in this city built by the Knights of Malta, which has preserved its historical texture to this day, we will see major points including Triton Fountain, City Gate, Republic Street, the Parliament Building, Auberge de Castille, St. John's Co-Cathedral area, and the Upper Barracca Gardens. Barracca...

Gün 2 — Day 2 — | Malta - Mdina - Rabat - Mosta - Marsaxlokk

Day 2 | Malta - Mdina - Rabat - Mosta - Marsaxlokk

After having breakfast at the hotel, we set off for a full-day Malta Masterpieces Tour to explore different aspects of Malta. Our first stop is Mdina, the old capital of the island. Surrounded by high walls, Mdina carries a medieval atmosphere to this day and is known as the "Silent City," where we will walk through narrow stone streets, aristocratic mansions, and squares after passing through the historical city gate. The area around St. Paul Cathedral and Bastion Square are among the places to see.

After our visit to Mdina, we move to the nearby Rabat area. Following our exploration of the historical streets of Rabat, which bear traces of Malta's Roman and early Christian periods, we head to Mosta.

Gün 3 — Day 3 — | Malta - Pozzallo - Noto - Siracusa & Ortigia - Catania

Day 3 | Malta - Pozzallo - Noto - Siracusa & Ortigia - Catania

After having breakfast at the hotel, we leave our hotel in Malta and transfer to the port. After completing our passport and ticket procedures, we cross from Malta to Sicily by fast ferry. After a pleasant sea journey over the Mediterranean, we arrive at Pozzallo Port in southern Sicily. We begin our exploration of Sicily with our private bus waiting at the port. Our first stop is Noto, which is on the UNESCO World Heritage List and is considered one of the finest examples of Sicilian Baroque. In Noto, known for its magnificent buildings made of honey-colored stone, we will see major sites including Porta Reale, Corso Vittorio Emanuele, Noto Cathedral, Palazzo Ducezio, and the historic city center. The dominance of Baroque architecture...

Gün 4 — Day 4 — | Catania - Mount Etna - Taormina - Catania

Day 4 | Catania - Mount Etna - Taormina - Catania

After having breakfast at the hotel, we set off for the Mount Etna & Taormina Tour, where we will explore Sicily's natural and historical beauties together. First, we head to the region of Mount Etna, the symbol of Sicily and the highest active volcano in Europe. We travel towards the southern slope of Etna, accompanied by unique volcanic landscapes shaped by lava.

If weather and road conditions are suitable, we will reach the Rifugio Sapienza area at an altitude of approximately 1,900 meters. Here, we will have the opportunity to see the Silvestri Craters, ancient lava flows, and the impressive volcanic geography of Etna. After some free time for photography, we head to Taormina. Taormina is known as Sicily's most elegant and famous...

Gün 5 — Day 5 — | Catania City Tour - Istanbul

Day 5 | Catania City Tour - Istanbul

After having breakfast at the hotel, we check out of our rooms and begin to explore Catania, one of Sicily's most characteristic cities. Established under the shadow of Mount Etna, Catania has been rebuilt several times throughout its history due to volcanic eruptions and earthquakes, featuring buildings made of black lava stone and a unique appearance with Sicilian Baroque.

During our city tour, we will see major points including the heart of Catania, Piazza del Duomo, the city's symbol, the Elephant Fountain - Fontana dell'Elefante, Catania Cathedral, Via Etnea, Piazza Università, the area around Teatro Massimo Bellini, and the historic city center.

Afterward, we provide free time for shopping, dining, and tasting Sicily's famous delicacies...
