Tur Programı

Gün 1 — GAZİANTEP - ŞANLIURFA — Şanlıurfa Hotels

On the 1st day of our Flight-Inclusive Journey Through History GAP Mesopotamia Tour departing from Izmir, after meeting our esteemed guests at the Adnan Menderes Airport counter in the morning, we proceed to the relevant airport at least 2 hours before the flight time for our Izmir - Gaziantep flight with THY, Pegasus, Anadolujet, SunExpress Airlines, using our ID card, driver's license, or passport, and complete our Check-In procedures. (Note: Your guide will meet you at Gaziantep Airport.) After approximately a 1.5-hour flight, we arrive at Gaziantep Airport and meet our waiting vehicle and guide to start our tour with breakfast (Extra) in Gaziantep, which was given the title "Gazi" on February 8, 1921. Our first stops will be Gaziantep Castle and the 14 Martyrs Monument built in memory of the children martyred at Dokurcum Mill, followed by visits to the Coppersmiths' Bazaar, Yemenciler Arastası (Shoemakers' Bazaar), Almacı Bazaar, and Tahmis Coffee House. During the free time here, you can enjoy Menengiç Coffee. After completing our historical bazaar tours in Gaziantep, we provide free time for you to taste Gaziantep's famous delicacies. We will visit the Zeugma Mosaic Museum, where floor mosaics from Roman Generals' Villas, rescued from the city of Zeugma submerged under the waters of Birecik Dam, are exhibited. After seeing the "Gypsy Girl" mosaic and all other mosaics, we will head to Şanlıurfa, where we will have the opportunity to eat local liver or kebab at Ciğerhan Restaurant. Returning to Şanlıurfa, known as the City of Prophets, believed to be where Prophets Adam, Job, Abraham, Shuayb, and Elisha lived, we will visit Balıklıgöl (Pool of Abraham), Ayn-ı Zeliha Lake, also said to be formed from the tears of King Nimrod's daughter Zeliha, and the Cave where Prophet Abraham was born. Finally, we will shop for products such as isot paste, red pepper, pomegranate molasses, illegal tea, etc. We then proceed to our hotel for accommodation. Guests who wish can join the Sıra Gecesi (Traditional Evening Gathering), an indispensable part of GAP, where we can experience the regional culture and taste local foods. (Extra - Dinner Included) Dinner is not included in the tour price for this evening's accommodation. Guests who do not wish to participate in the Sıra Gecesi can have dinner at their own expense. Sıra Gecesi: Lebni Soup, İçliköfte (Stuffed Meatballs), Fındık Lahmacun (Mini Lahmacun), Eggplant Kebab-Tomato Kebab-Urfa Kebab, Salad, Urfa Spicy Ezme, Çiğköfte (Raw Meatballs), Pistachio Cream Cold Baklava, Ayran, Water, Tea, Mırra (Bitter Coffee) Sıra Gecesi Program (Extra) Breakfast: Zeugma Breakfast (Extra) Lunch: Şanlıurfa - Ciğerhan Restaurant (Extra) Dinner: Şanlıurfa - Sıra Gecesi Mixed Kebab Menu (Extra) Accommodation: İpek Palas, New Akgöl Hotel, Newton Hotel, My Life Hotel etc...

Gün 2 — GÖBEKLİTEPE - GRAND MOSQUE - MARDİN — Mardin Hotels

On the 2nd day of our Flight-Inclusive Journey Through History GAP Mesopotamia Tour departing from Izmir, after breakfast at our hotel in the morning, we reach Harran (Extra), famous for its domed houses and unique culture. Here we will see Harran Grand Mosque, which holds the distinction of being the oldest mosque established in Turkey during the Islamic period, the First Islamic Madrasah (Harran University), the Inner Castle, and the Historical Walls, and visit one of the Conical Domed Houses. During this pleasant visit, you can take photos wearing local costumes (Extra). After our visit to Harran house, we will reach Göbeklitepe, the starting point of world history, which is the first place of worship and settlement, to see the 12,000-year-old temples with reliefs of cranes, snakes, and pigs, and then depart from Şanlıurfa. We will begin our journey, which will take approximately 2.5 hours, using the historical Silk Road. We will reach Mardin via Viranşehir and Kızıltepe and have a delicious local Mardin meal for lunch. We begin our tour of Mardin, which is described as "a necklace at night, a spectacle during the day." Our first stop will be Kasımiye Madrasah; after enjoying this magnificent structure and listening to our guide's explanations, we will get off our bus at Diyarbakır Gate and take dolmuş (extra) to Cumhuriyet Square. From here, we will explore Mardin on foot. We will conclude our Mardin City Tour by seeing the Grand Mosque famous for its minaret, the Abbaras (arched passages), Şahtana Mansion, and Şehidiye Mosque. After some free time, we will go to Saido Mısır Çarşısı (Egyptian Bazaar) for you to shop for Blue Almond Candy, dyed with the root of the Lahor tree. We will meet our vehicle at Savur Gate and visit Deyrul Zaferan Monastery, built in the 5th century on top of a Sun Temple. After the monastery tour, we will arrive at our hotel; dinner and accommodation are at our hotel. Breakfast: Will be served as an open buffet or set menu at our hotel. (Included) Lunch: Mardin Adana Dostlar Kebapçısı (Extra) Dinner: Will be served as an open buffet or set menu at our hotel. (Included) Accommodation: Bilen Hotel, Avesis Hotel, Ladinis Hotel etc..

Gün 3 — MİDYAT - DİYARBAKIR WALLS - MARDİN GATE - ADİYAMAN — Diyarbakır or Kahta Hotels

On the 3rd day of our Flight-Inclusive Journey Through History GAP Mesopotamia Tour departing from Izmir, after breakfast at our hotel in the morning, we will depart from Mardin and head to Midyat, another visual feast. Here, we will visit the Guest House, which hosted the TV series Sila, and take a short break for you to learn about Mardin's famous filigree art and do some shopping. After our Midyat trip, our path will lead us to a great sorrow, Hasankeyf. We will see Zeynel Bey Tomb and other historical artifacts in their newly relocated places due to being submerged under the waters of Ilisu Dam. During the free time, guests who wish can participate in our extra Hasankeyf Boat Tour (Extra). After the boat tour, we will reach Diyarbakır via Batman, seeing the Malabadi Bridge, listening to its story and folk song, and taking plenty of pictures (Extra). We will watch the Diyarbakır Walls and Urfa Gate, which are thought to have a history of 9000 years, with an unknown construction date and civilization, from our vehicle with our guide's explanations. We will then visit Diyarbakır Grand Mosque, one of the oldest mosques in Anatolia and one of the V. Haram al-Sharifs of Islam, converted into a mosque in 639. Meeting our vehicle at Mardin Gate, one of the four main gates of Diyarbakır walls, we will panoramically view the Hevsel Gardens next to the Tigris River, believed to flow to Paradise, Keçi Burcu (Goat Bastion), and the Ten-Eyed Bridge, and then depart from Diyarbakır. Passing the 610-meter-long Nissibi Bridge, built in 2015 over the Atatürk Dam Lake, via Siverek, we will reach our hotel in Diyarbakır or Kahta. Dinner and accommodation are at our hotel. Breakfast: Will be served as an open buffet or set menu at our hotel. (Included) Lunch: Midyat Cihan Restaurant Free Menu - Batman Ali Usta Restaurant (Extra) Dinner: Will be served as an open buffet or set menu at our hotel. #### Gün 4 — ADIYAMAN MOUNT NEMRUT - GAZİANTEP BAKLAVA SHOPPING — Attention: No Accommodation This Night.

On the 4th day of our Flight-Inclusive Journey Through History GAP Mesopotamia Tour departing from Izmir, guests who wish can wake up early in the morning (Extra) and set off for our Mount Nemrut Sunrise tour. We reach the starting point of our walking path, which will take approximately 30 minutes with our minibuses. At the end of our somewhat challenging walk, after watching the sunrise from the Altar and seeing the Monumental Tomb of King Antiochus, and the colossal statues of Antiochus, Zeus, Apollo, and Hercules, we begin our return journey. After seeing Karakuş Tumulus, where the tombs of Commagene King Mithridates, his mother İsiyas, his sister Antiochis, and his niece Aka are located, and Cendere Bridge, built by Roman Emperor Septimius Severus in honor of his wife and sons, we will arrive at our hotel. After breakfast at our hotel, we will depart from our hotel and watch the Atatürk Dam, completed in 1992 and ranking 8th in the world in terms of fill volume, from the observation deck. We then reach Halfeti, where most of it is submerged under the waters of Birecik Dam and where the TV series Karagül was filmed, and board our boat. During our approximately 1-hour (Extra) Halfeti Boat Tour, we will see the King's Daughter Cave, Rumkale, where Yohannes, one of the apostles of Jesus, settled, and then the submerged mosque and its minaret under the waters of the Euphrates in Savaşan Village. We will then return to Halfeti, which is rumored to have taken its name from the story of two young people named Halil and Fatma. After our (extra) lunch break, we will get into our vehicle and cross to the other side of the Euphrates to continue our tour. We provide an opportunity to shop at Abdullah Sedef Baklavaları, Gaziantep's most famous baklava maker in the region. Afterwards, after having our dinner, we will return with THY, Pegasus, Anadolujet, SunExpress Airlines on the Gaziantep - Izmir Adnan Menderes flight, completing our Flight-Inclusive Journey Through History GAP Mesopotamia Tour departing from Izmir, leaving dozens of memories that will remain in your minds. We bid farewell, hoping to see you in another organization, and thank you for choosing GEZİ TUTKUNLARI Operations and Sales team, with our respects. Note: Depending on seasonal conditions, the Mount Nemrut tour may not be possible. Instead, Karakuş Tumulus, Cendere Bridge, and Arsemia Tour will be conducted. Breakfast: Will be served as an open buffet or set menu at our hotel. (Included) Lunch: Halfeti - Firat Restaurant / Şabut Fish Menu.
