Tur Programı

Gün 1 — Day 1

We meet at the INTERNATIONAL Terminal of Adnan Menderes Airport at the time notified via SMS by our agency the day before. After completing the necessary check-in and baggage procedures, we depart for SARAJEVO BUTMIR AIRPORT (SJJ) on flight XQ1115 of SUNEXPRESS AIRLINES at 10:35. After approximately an hour's journey, we land at the airport, collect our luggage, and complete our customs procedures. Our vehicle awaits us in the heart of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Sarajevo, showcasing all the beauties of nature ...

Gün 2 — Day 2

After breakfast at our hotel, we turn our route towards the turquoise waters of the Adriatic and set off towards the blues. Our stop, where we will create unforgettable memories, is the shining star of the Balkans, Montenegro. After passing through majestic mountain roads, we reach the coast and encounter the fairy-tale city of Kotor, which is on the UNESCO World Heritage List. In this city resembling an open-air museum, we explore its magnificent walls, Army, Flour, and St. Triphon squares, the time-witnessing Clock Tower, and historical structures.

Gün 3 — Day 3

After breakfast at our hotel, we proceed towards the capital Tirana with the characteristic views of Albania via Lezhë and Laç. In this dynamic city, founded by Suleiman Pasha in 1618, we visit the Ministry Buildings that bear traces of Italian architecture, the Skanderbeg Square, the elegantly striking Et'hem Bey Mosque, the Clock Tower, and ...

Gün 4 — Day 4

After breakfast at our hotel, we bid farewell to the fairy-tale Ohrid and set off towards Bitola (Manastır) with the beautiful views of Resne's endless apple orchards. We start the day by visiting the Military Academy, where the Great Leader Mustafa Kemal Atatürk was educated, which is significant for Turkish history. Then, we take a pleasant walk in the heart of the city on Shirok Street; we see New Mosque, Ishak Pasha Mosque, and the centuries-old ...

Gün 5 — Day 5

After breakfast at our hotel, we briefly bid farewell to Macedonia and enter our friendly and brotherly country, Kosovo. Our first stop is the capital Pristina, which is the cultural center of the country with its youthful energy and deep-rooted educational tradition. Here, we visit the tomb of Ottoman Sultan Murad I, who fell as a martyr after the Battle of Kosovo in 1389, opening the sorrowful pages of history. Then, we move towards Prizren, the most beautiful piece in the Balkans. We will explore its architecture and the echoing call to prayer from its minarets....

Gün 6 — Day 6

After breakfast at our hotel, we reach the 'White City' of Serbia, Belgrade, following the route through Kumanova, Vranje, Leskovac, Niš, and Smederevska. We start our tour by visiting the St. Sava Cathedral, one of the most magnificent structures in the Serbian Orthodox world, which crowns the silhouette of the city. During the panoramic city tour we will take afterwards, we will see the wide boulevards, the impressive Belgrade skyscrapers, government buildings, the parliament building, and the historically significant General Staff and Police Center buildings that were bombed by NATO

Gün 7 — Day 7

After breakfast at our hotel, we set off on the return journey to Sarajevo, where our tour began and holds a special place in our hearts. First, we head towards Novi Sad, the capital of Serbia's Vojvodina Province. Our first stop here will be Petrovaradin Fortress. We enjoy the magnificent view of Novi Sad from the fortress we will explore with a short walk. Then we move to the center of Novi Sad. During our walk in the city where Albert Einstein also lived for a while, we will see panoramic views of Freedom Square, the Svetozar Miletić Statue, the Catholic Cathedral, the Orthodox St. George Cathedral, the St. Nicholas Church, and the Synagogue. T...

Gün 8 — Day 8

After breakfast at our hotel, we set off to crown our journey in the Balkans with a magnificent finale. We visit the Vrelo Bosna National Park, which has such impressive beauty that it makes you say 'we found paradise on earth' (Entrance fee is at the guests' expense). At the majestic foothills of the Igman Mountains, we take a pleasant morning walk in this magnificent park, where the crystal-clear water source of the Bosna River brings life. With the sounds of birds, ancient trees, and the murmuring of the river, we conclude our tour with this last discovery, leaving us with unforgettable memories.
